

PBS39's DIRECTORS SOCIETY

THERE is a special group of people that PBS39 would like to recognize: the members of our Directors Society. These annual major donors have made an investment in PBS39 because they know that public television is so much more than just what they see on their television sets. They understand that PBS39 is a vital community resource.

PBS39 offers a non-violent, safe-haven for area children, by providing them with exceptional family programming; while our education outreach department also helps to prepare our youngest viewers for school by conducting area workshops.

MANY people are involved in philanthropic endeavors throughout their lifetimes. However, some visionary individuals continue to make an impact on the world even after they leave this life. Over the past 17 years, PBS39 has received several charitable bequests ranging from $5,000 to $26,000.

In May 2007, PBS39 inaugurated The Legacy Society. It is not often that a simple act by a thoughtful person can have an impact on the quality of life for an entire community. The individuals listed below have done just that by making a decision to recognize Fort Wayne Public Television in their wills:

Rich and Denise Bienz • Douglas Burrey
John and Susan Peirce

Charitable gifts from members of PBS39's Legacy Society help to guarantee the future of great television and the other services we provide. We thank these individuals for ensuring that PBS39 will be able to continue connecting people to each other and the world for generations to come.

If you have made Fort Wayne Public Television a beneficiary in your estate planning, please contact Vice President of Marketing and Development Toni Kayumi at (260) 471-5363, so that PBS39 may recognize your generosity and invite you to upcoming Legacy Society special events.
